Tenant-In-Common Association Elects Renee Brown as President-Elect

INDIANAPOLIS — February 6, 2009 — The Tenant-In-Common Association (TICA) recently elected its 2009 officers. Renee Brown was selected as the 2009 President-Elect.

Brown will serve as President-Elect through December 2009 and begin a one-year term as President in January 2010. Currently, she is the founding partner of Wildwood Wealth Management, LLC, a Minneapolis-based wealth management firm that serves accredited investors. Brown has extensive experience in estate and tax planning and is a frequent national lecturer on topics involving estate and retirement tax planning, real estate repositioning and 1031 exchanges.

Randy Beckman of Grubb & Ellis Realty Investors LLC was elected to be Secretary. Bill Winn of Passco Companies is the President. Greg Paul of OMNI Brokerage Inc. was re-elected to Vice President and Mark Kosanke of Professional Asset Management was re-elected to Treasurer. These professionals will make up TICA's executive committee in 2009.
