Tenant-In-Common Association Will Hold 2009 Spring Meeting

This Meeting Will Focus on How to Survive and Thrive in the Commercial Real Estate Industry

INDIANAPOLIS — January 26, 2009 — The Tenant-In-Common Association (TICA) will hold its 2009 Spring Meeting March 18-20, 2009 at the Manchester Grand Hyatt in San Diego, California. With the current economic conditions, this meeting will provide the education needed to survive and thrive through this economy.

This event brings more than 600 of the leading registered representatives, broker-dealers, sponsors, attorneys, CPAs, real estate professionals and investment professionals interested in 1031 exchanges or tenant-in-common (TIC) transactions together to network and learn the latest trends in the TIC industry.

With the current economy and financing market, the agenda and sessions will focus on how to “survive and thrive” in the TIC industry. Throughout the event, attendees will have the opportunity to participate in interactive forums and educational sessions, attend sponsor roundtable sessions, network with leading commercial real estate companies in the exhibit hall and hear the industry’s leading experts speak. Educational sessions will cover a variety of the latest topics and trends in the industry including the most effective strategies for handling property workout situations, managing your time to meet your investor’s needs, expanding your product line with alternative products including funds, REITs, notes, and more. Attendees will also hear the latest industry trends including past and current statistics and future predictions.

Keynote speakers for this year’s meeting include real estate economists Dr. Glenn Mueller and Dr. Mark Dotzour. Dr. Mueller currently teaches real estate courses at Denver University Burns School of Real Estate & Construction and serves as a real estate investment strategist at Dividend Capital Research. He has 33 years of real estate industry experience and 24 years of research on real estate market cycles, investments and capital markets. Dr. Dotzour is the chief economist and director of research for the real estate center at Texas A&M University. Dotzour will present an outlook for the economy, interest rates, investment climate, real estate space and absorption and property values.
