Real Estate Investment Securities Association (REISA) Welcomes New Members: Mewbourne Oil Company & Miterko & Associates

INDIANAPOLIS – September 21, 2010 – The Real Estate Investment Securities Association (REISA) announced that Mewbourne Oil Company and Miterko & Associates have joined as members.

Mewbourne Oil Company is among the top 15 largest privately owned oil and gas companies in the United States. For over 45 years, Mewbourne Oil Company has successfully drilled over 1,700 wells in the combined basins of Permian and Anadarko in Eastern New Mexico, West Texas, North Texas Panhandle and Western Oklahoma.

Paula Miterko, president of Miterko & Associates, has over 20 years direct experience in due diligence on DPP programs and alternative investments, focused primarily on real estate, energy (oil and gas), tax credits, and equipment leasing, among other types of offerings and assets. As a provider of independent due diligence research, Miterko & Associates gathers, analyzes, and reports quantitative facts and makes qualitative observations concerning each investment sponsor, investment vehicle, and underlying asset or portfolio. All research material is available to clients for their permanent due diligence files and for regulatory and compliance purposes.

“REISA welcomes Mewbourne Oil Company and Miterko & Associates as they bring new industry knowledge on alternative energy investments and due diligence research to the association,” said Brandon Balkman, REISA Executive Director. “We encourage other oil and gas sponsors and due diligence professionals to get involved with REISA.”

REISA members include attorneys, CPAs, broker-dealers, sponsors, lenders, qualified intermediaries, registered investment advisors and registered representatives. Currently, REISA has 500 members who represent more than 18,000 financial advisors in the industry. REISA offers members interactive networking, professional development and educational opportunities through conferences, white papers, webinars, industry training and a bi-monthly publication.
